

HARRIMANSTEEL INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

ABOUT US

HarrimanSteel is an independent brand experience agency who specialise in bold ideas that ignite emotions and trigger consumer behaviour. We call this the "Art of Selling". Pivotal to our business is developing strategic creative solutions that move the dial, and then crafting the output with meticulous precision, passion and care. We challenge our team to think laterally, to exceed expectations and to always deliver best in class.

ROLE OVERVIEW

We are after an ambitious individual that's eager to learn and work in collaboration with our friendly Creative Team all the way from idea generation to design and artwork, or with our production team assisting Account Managers and Executive Producers in the lead up and delivery of content production across different mediums such as printed and digital media or retail build outs.

You will be looking for a minimum 3 month, full-time position in which you can develop your set of skills.

An internship role at HarrimanSteel is broad, allowing the individual to experience a diverse range of projects and tasks, from working on a brand identity for a startup, to compiling research and briefing for a large scale shoot. You need to be up for the challenge, want to roll up your sleeves and be a team player.

STUDIO RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend internal briefings around the project and help us probe the client brief.
- Responsible for all aspects of the creative task delegated to you - from research to initial concepts, all the way through to installations or film shoots.
- You will be eager to learn and have a blossoming eye for scale, materials and technology to work together and be confident working across a range of projects, from branding one day, to retail design or art direction the next.
- Be proactive in your development- we will work alongside you to develop your skills and we rely on you to keep us up to date with any areas where you feel you need extra support.
- Take on board the 'bottom up' ethos of HarrimanSteel's approach to projects- working with Account Directors and the Creative Directors to learn about our strategic approach to projects.
- Clearly communicate your ideas and present with passion and enthusiasm to the rest of your team. We love good presentation skills and will work with you to develop this side of your skill set- be prepared to stand up and talk to the group!
- You will be expected to timesheet everyday to help us keep track of our projects.
- Take pride and care for your work space, our studio is regularly visited by clients, so you'll be expected to be organized and tidy.

REQUIREMENTS

- Available to work full time (37.5hrs/wk) with overtime if required
- Excellent written and verbal skills in English, Dutch a bonus
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Maturity and attention to detail
- Excellent time management skills, to facilitate involvement in multiple projects
- Self-starter, can-do mentality
- Professional personality and understanding of a busy working studio environment
- Proficiency in Apple Pages and Numbers, and Google Drive
- Knowledge in Adobe CS, Keynote, SketchUp, After Effects or Final Cut software is desirable

ATTITUDE

- We want our new intern to bring a genuine interest in design, culture and lifestyle brands. You will naturally keep up to date with the latest trends and news sites, bringing inspiration from a variety of sources into your work.
- You will be zealous for producing the highest standard of work and keen to train your eye for detail.
- You'll be a team player and recognize when your teammates need an extra set of hands.
- We're a tight knit team from around the globe, so you'll value internal culture as much as external. You'll be up for joining us for lunches, drinks, and the occasional team outing.
